

I recently received e-mail notification of a lawsuit against the Indiana Attorney General filed by the consumer bankers association in an attempt to weaken the restrictions on calling private homes. I am writing to oppose this action of the CBA. I value my privacy especially on my home phone. Increased calling would encourage me to cancel my phone line altogether.

Thank you for accepting this comment.

Beth Johnston